ELECTION LAW VIOLATIONS.

An Official Letter Discomfiting to Importers.

The litigious experiences of Mrs. Anna Newell, which had rather a large development in her long and spirited contest of the will of the late William H. pardman, which was tried in Boston, and her more recent divorce suit tried in this city, would not seem to suppress altogether her controversial proclivities. She has now brought a suit for an accounting by Lorenze D. Newell, her husband, as her fiduciary agent in connection with his business ventures in this city. She states that she was married to Mr. Nowell on the 6th of Jane, 1865; that at that time her husband, William H. Newell, and William H. Smith, were coparthers under the firm name of Newell, Smith & Co.; that the was then in receipt of an income from William H. Boardman; that her husband was allowed by the articles expenses; that in November following their marringe it was agreed that if she would support herself from her own income he would place to her credit yearly what remained of the $2.500 ne did not draw. This arrangement was kept up for several years, and, as she believes, a considerable sum was credited to her account, she residing a portion of this time abroad. She states further that on January 6, 1866, the firm dissolved and was succeeded by the firm of Newell & Smith; that the latter firm paid to Mr. Newell, acting as tier seen, $6,000; that on the same date Mr. Newell entered into a partnership with Miss Candidos M. Othey are for the firm name of C. M. Othey & Co.; that he contributed $5,000 in cash and $1,000 in goods, thus exhausting the money to her own credit in his hands. The latter firm was dissolved on Mirch 1, 1872, and at the dissolution he transferred all her (Mrs. Newell's) interest amountaint, as she is informed and believes, to between $12,000 and $18,000; that in the time of such dissolution $4,000 was paid to Newell's Smith for her benefit. She afleges further Newell & Smith for her boucht, she alleges further that an account of all these transactions was kept in books of account; that it is impossible for her to go to trait without an inspection of such books, and and sake an order from Jurge Donoaue directing that the books be given to the clerk of the Court for inspaction. Mr. Neweil and Mr. Smith made a joint affidivit in response to the application, staining that they were adjunged bankrupts, and Etjah J. Tuttle appointed assignee, and shortly afterward the books were selzed by a United States marshal. Judge Donobus denied the motion on the ground that the books were not in the possession or control of the defendants. Detected in this proceeding Mrs. Newall was by no means, however, discomitted. She applied to Judge Donohus for an order that a commission issue for the examination of Angela I. Haywood is her sister and his heard various interviews between herself and Mr. Newell in regard to their business matters, more particularly about the amounts one her and to her credit on the books of Newell & Smith. Mr. Newell denies that any such conversation ever took place. Under the circumstances, not being able to prepare cross interrogatories, his counsel asked that permission might be given to examine Mrs. Haywood or andly, Judge Donohus issued a commission yesterday to Edward J. Jones and Charles F. Walcott, of Boston, Juage Donohue issued a commission yesterday to Edward J. Jones and Charles F. Walcott, of Boston,

There was a very general expectation that there ould be important counter developments made in Supreme Court, Chambers, yesterday before Judge Denonue on the order to show cause why the decree of diverce granted to Mrs. Ruth Cooper in her suit against her husband, Isanc P. Cooper, should not be set aside on the ground of alleged fraud, collusion and Imposition on the Court. Mesers. Robinson and Scribner, the counsel instituting the present proceedscribber, the counsel instituting the present proceedings, were promptly in attendance in expectation that some counter affidavits would be submitted in response to those offered as the basis of the present legal proceedings, the substance of which has been published in Sunday's flundar. Instead, however, of a fusinde of anjusting papers on the other side, a postponement was exical, on the ground that excludes fulcifor, the leading counsel, was now absent in Europe. Mr. Serioner strenducts, was now absent in Europe. Mr. Serioner staying that he would give his decision tooday, but afterward remarked that, as he had granted the decree of divorce, not thought it has duity to order a reference to ascortant he truth or otherwise of the charge that imposition had been practised on the Court; but for all that, he thought it no more than har that notice should be given to the other side. These proceedings, as will be readily comprehended, are brought with a view to effectually resist the darm made by Mrz. Gooper that sine is the window of the late John F. Mrshall, and therefore entitled to a dower interest in his estate. Mr. Cooper was formerly a man of considerable wealth, and at one time one of the proprietors of the Metropolitan Hotel at Long Branch, but more reconfly proprietor of the New York Hotel at Pleasure Bay. Jussiph C. Cooper, the present Mayor at Long Branch, is no rother. Mr. West, the hatter of Mrz. Gooper, has been the Goldenter of inus, were promptly in attendance in expectation that out Mayor at Long Branch, is his brother. Mr. West, the integr of Mrs. Cooper, has been the Collector of Ocean Towarsip, Monmouth county, N. J., and has held other positions of trust.

THE TENEMENT HOUSE ARSON. The trial of Katrina Kreckeldorf for setting fire to her premises, No. 109 Orchard street, was resumed yesterday before Recorder Hackett, Mr. Hummell recalled the prisoner to the witness stand, and she testified that also bad enemies in the house in Forsyth street, where a preceding fire occurred. Dora Eckler, the daughter of the accused, also deposed that her mother was in her company away from Orenard street at the time the fire broke out. Assistant District Attorney Lyon subjected this witness to a rigid cross-examination. Witnesses were also called who proved the prior good character of Mra Kreckeldorf. Assistant Fire Marshai Orr testified Mra. Kreckeldorf. Assistant Fire Marshai Orr testified that the present claimed that property was missing which he found. Mr. Hummel then addressed the lary in a vigorous and impressive speech, orging that the case was one only of creamstantial evidence, and knounded with as many doubts in lavor of the aged present that imple justice domanded her acquittal. Mr. Lyon activered an equally forsible speech for the proceedation, maisting that there was a strong motive on the part of the prisoner to perpetrate the offence, and that moune also could be guity of the hemous crime. Recorder flacket gave the usual admonition to the jury, and, it being rather late in the day, adjourned the further proceedings until to-day, when he will deliver his charge to the jury.

VIOLATING THE ELECTION LAW. A large crowd assembled yesterday in Part 2 of the Court of General Sessions, Judge Gildersleeve presiding, in authorpation of hearing the trial of James W. Foshay and Henry A. Newell, the former the president and the latter the superintendent of the Broadway and Sevento Avenue Rattroad Company, on a charge of violating the Election law in having, as alleged, threatened, menaced and intimidated some of the employes of the road and attempted to influence a certain elector named Patrice Livech in giving his vote at the last highly-Ecciestine beenforial context in November. When the case was entited Mr. Whitam A. Beach and Mr. Whitam A. Beach and Mr. Whitam Bird promptly responded as councel for the accised. Assessant District Attorney Religions, where it led that owing to a misunderstanding both District Attorney Photps and Assistant District Attorney Robins, who has charge of the case, were absent, the former being out of town. Mr. Photps, he had, would be in attendance to-day. Mr. Grach called that this was a great hard-dup, as his chears were all ready to proceed. Counsel subsequently made a motion to quash the indictment on the ground that it was meaning and uncertain and fatical to describe with sufficient measurements and particularity the facts which constituted the offence. Counsel contended that there should be a link complete and substantial revealing of all the constituents comprising the offence of when the accised is to be treed, and filed averal anthorities in support of his argument. the employer of the road and attempted to Mr. Bell resistent the motion, claiming that he secured word charged with doing decision things which the secure word charged with doing decision. The Court reserved its decision.

A search for the third was instituted, and just as it was about to be abandoned a noise was heard in the organ gatiery, and on examination being made Cantil was found canceled in one of its recesses. The police officer took charge of the young man, who was soon afterward identified as a caurch thiel. The plaintiffs employed Duncan, Sherman & Co. as their New York agents upon the representation that in Pine street and Some real estate adjoining, whereas, after the failure of the firm, some deeds were recorded, made some years previous, of this property to Alexander Buncau. The suit was brought to set aside the conveyance to Mr. Buncan under these deeds. After hearing some testimony in the dase Judge Vo. Brunt dismissed the complaint. He held that whatever the public reputation of the firm one Judge Van Brunt dismissed the complaint. He held that whatever the public reputation of the firm might have been the record shows that the property in question did not belong to the new firm and that a conveyance made without fraud of oraditors took precedence of any subsequent judgment. Mr. B. D. Lord appeared for the plaintiff and Mr. F. N. Bengs for the defendant.

FIT FOR AN EIGHTH WARD DARKY. Por some time past midnight burgiaries have been m, and the offenders have hitherto evaced detection. The police of the Thirty-fourth (Fremont) precinct were fortunate enough, however, in being able to get upon the trait of one of the thievas, who has finally been brought to bay. Footsteps printed in the soft loam near several of the invaded mansions were carefully measured, and all found to agree in length and width. A few weeks ago a pair of shoes were picked up, and these were found to fit the measure. spen, feeling satisfied that the game would soon be on Prospect avenue, near Mount Hope, reported him self at the Tremont police station as the latest vic tim. The thief had found a broken pane in one of the windows, and thrusing a stex through the opening reversed the window caten with it. This was accomprished without noise, but the intruder left his key behind. On examining the premises Sergeanh Stewart found the usual footprints and then the threated officer John H. He remained in the woods, with occasional respites, from Friday siterneon until Sunday morning. It wasn't A Mans.

About three o'clock A. M. on that day the officer's weary vigil was interrupted by a singular noise. It appeared to him as though a bear or other wind beast was laxily working his way brough the dense undergrowth. He renewed his vigilaboe, and pretty soon the bear assumed an upright position, and natead of climbing the tree, as the officer at first supposed, proceeded to stow a way Mr. Bane's sityerware which reposed at the base. Weeks then arose and to a lond voice ordered a failt, whereupon the nocturnal visitor started to run, but had proceeded but a short distance when the officer fired two shots after him. The legitive then threw up both arms, exclaming, "I am shot, I am shot," and left to the ground. Officer Weeks then began a search for the jand body, which was no easy task, for the gloaming that just precedes the dawn was over all Nearly haif an hour was thus occupied when he stumbled over a log, as he supposed, which turned out, noweyer, to be a fiving human being, who grasped the officer tightly aroonal the wast. FARRELL'S PISTOL

John C. Farrell, a bartender, residing at No. 535 Tenth avenue, had a quarrel with his wife yesterday morning, and Officer Lundberg, of the Twenty-second thought it his duty to interfere. It is alleged that Farreil pulled a revolver on the officer and he was arrangued before Judge Duffy on that charge. he was arranged before Judge Duffy on that charge. The prisoner seemed, nowever, to have got the worst of the encounter, as his face and the whole front of his shirt were covered with blood, the result, it is stated, of a blow from the officer's club. The revolver was produced in court and it seemed to be not only a small sized but a rather ranty looking weapon. Farrell stated that the officer's interference between himself and his wife was altogether uncalled for. "As far as the pistoi is concerned, Your Honor," said the prisoner, "it has been soaking in water for two days and I'll stand here and let you shoot me with it now it you can." Farrell was formally held in $1,000 bull to answer a charge of felonious assault and outery.

FAILURE OF A PROMINENT BUSINESS MAN OF PERKELL - EMBARRASSED MERCHANTS GOING INTO VOLUNTARY BANKRUPTCY.

The failure of Daniel J. Haight, of Peckskill, is announced, and has caused the greatest surprise in trade in this city. He was known all along the Hudson, from New York to Albany, as a shrewd and successful business man. He was president of the American Stove Works, kept a large country store at Peekskill, nanaged six separate farms at Van Cortlandtville, Crumpond, Gallows Hill, Furnace Woods and the Highlands; operated three brickyards at Crugers and ontrose, owned the cemetery and acted as the banker for the farmers in the vicinity of Peckskill. His difficulties are owing mainly to the failure of the American Stove Works, which occurred a low weeks ago. He suak $50,000 in the company and is on their paper for upward of $29,000 as indorser. Several judgments were filed against him last week, and in order to prevent the Sheriff from taking possession and to protect all the creditors he made an assignment of his individual property, consisting of the farms, brickwards, notes and personal property, to Joseph L. Cook; he siso assigned his interest in the American Stove Works to Stephen Lent and Coffin S. Brown; the firm of Haight, Haines & Co., grocers, of which he was the senior partiner, made an assignment to Abram Griffin. The failure is a disastrous one, as it involves many morchants and numerous farmers who need his notes. The habities are estimated all the way from $150,000 to $550,000, but the stronght that they will ameent to about $250,000. Much of the indebtedness is local, but there is a considerable amount due the New York banks. His assets consist of six larms embracing about six hundred and fifty acres, valued at $50,000, but covered with mortages; several stores, houses and real estate in Peesskill; notes, book accounts and stock, the value of which is not known. Among the enterprises which he conducted was the Cortlandwile Cemetery; he purchased a large traus of hand about two miles from the village, laid it out in flue style and propared it for a countery. WALL STREET, MONDAY, MAY 27-6 P. M.

The strength of Saturday's market was securely bottled up over Sunday, and when the wires were cut at the opening of business this morning it sparkled up as fresh and foaming as ever. In fact there was rather too much of this latter quality for a health; market, since the impression was produced that prices were being stiffened to make a market to sell on, which turned out to be the fact before the day was over. At the opening a strong send off was given to the Western roads, which was followed by Western Union, Central and Hudson and Union Pacific, and a gain of % to 1 per cent was netted for each. Lake for after struggling upward in a fractional way it fell into the hostile hands of the bow window people, who, treating it with their usual courtesy, set it going upon the back track with considerable celerity. Had the retreat been confined to Lake Shore it would have been bad enough, but worse came out of it in the snape of a decline throughout the whole list. This reversal in speculative feeling was not, however, to be attributed to Lake Shore alone. There were atrong suspicions that the opportunity was being seized to teed the market with the Northwestern surplus election stock, which the not over hungry recipient choked at and refused. Again, to day has been an out-and-outer in the shape of peace news, which came upon the street like a whill of the millennium, but was none the less unpleasantly suggestive of reduced exports of breadstuffs and lower prices for the same. It suggested, also, lower prices for the roads that carry the breadstuffs, and practically contributed to bring them about, as the record of quotations shows.
The upshot of the whole matter is, that after midday the course of speculation became reversed; that St Paul and the Northwestern lost the gain of the morning, and that Lake Shore, after receiving the maledictions of the entire herd of buils, as being the prime cause of the trouble, not only parted with its paliry improvement, but finished nearly one per cent worse off than it had started. It would, nevertheless, be imagining a vain thing to suppose that a bear movement is upon the cards at present. Handsome profits have been made upon paper, which will look handsomer still when converted into greenbacks, and it was in this laudable effort at transmutation that stock speculators were to-day engaged. Of other leatures. weak one in the afternoon, and a good deal of discord for to-morrow, are the facts for the day and the prognostication for the luture.
